

JOURNALING PROMPTS

1. What is your favorite genre of book? Can you remember the first book or a particularly meaningful book you read in that genre?
2. What character from a book or movie do you identify with? Why is that?
3. Is there a book you always recommend to people looking for something to read? What is it? Why do you like to recommend it?
4. What is your relationship to the library in your community or school?
5. Do you have any memories of being at or using that library?
6. Why did you want to take part in this program? This is your journal, so you can be as honest as you'd like!
7. What goals do you have for yourself as we move through these sessions? These can be big goals, like planning to show up and speak at a library or school board meeting, or smaller goals, like feeling brave or confident enough to participate in discussions in this room.
8. What are you most excited about learning?
9. What are you most nervous about?
10. What questions do you have right now?
